Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir:—My son has received so much benefit from your which he has suffered, and, so far as I can

If there is any fixed fact in therapentics, it is this: that the Bitters are a far better safeguard against all the varieties of periodic maladies produced by unwholesome exhalations than any drug or compound in the materia medica of the profession. This assertion is made with all due respect to the taculty, but being an important truth, and one that nearly concerns the health of large settlements in various parts of the country, and indeed of the public at large, it is made fearlessly. Founded on ampleand impeachable testimony, it defies disproval.

To break up chills and fevers, as well as to prevent them, there is nothing so relia-ble as this wholesome vegetable restorative. May 5, 1870—1mo.

Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.

Moneof Prefaration .- Buchu, in vacuo.

Mode of Prefaration.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a figure destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous dec ection. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation I redominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are ad led, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopæa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflamation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.
